This established community, owned by The Authority, offers moderately priced, privately owned mobile homes on spaces leased at reasonable rates. An on-site community center, with a kitchen facility on-site, offers a place to conduct community events such as potlucks and bingo games.

In 1984, the Mobile Home Park opened and was named in honor of Dorothy J. Kidd, current Commissioner.

In 1989, this property received a National Merit Award from NAHRO for “Program Innovation.”

The convenient eastside location, east of Nellis on Flamingo Road, is close to shopping centers, banks, bus stops and grocery stores.
