This property was acquired in 1977
and was named in honor of W.R. (Bob) Hampton, former Henderson Mayor and Authority Board Chairman and Vice Chairman.

The walk-up units feature security screen doors, laundry hook-ups, evaporative coolers, storage areas and new stairways.

This property is scheduled for total interior renovation including air conditioning.

The Henderson Boys and Girls Club is available on site at the Selma Bartlett Youth Facility and there is also a playground.
The property participates in the Henderson Community Policing Program.

The property is located south of Lake Mead Drive at Warm Springs and Center Street.
