This property was placed into service in 1971 as the first family Public Housing offered in Clark County. The site was named in honor of Albert M. Landsman, former Board Chairman.

The single-story units feature blinds, laundry hook-ups, air conditioning/evaporative coolers, private driveways and entrances, back yards, and storage space.

The property offers plenty of parking, open green areas with mature landscaping, playgrounds, an EOB Center (Daycare), a WIC (Women Infants and Children) Center and participates in the Henderson Community Policing program.

This Henderson property is located east of Boulder Hwy at Major and Burkholder.

It is close to shopping centers, banks, schools, and bus routes
